

OUR INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT LARK DOLEY DISTRICT 112 VISIT 2019

INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT Lark Doley, DTM

Lark, of Jonestown, Texas, is a senior training coordinator for MAXIMUS, where she has worked since 2007. She manages the professional development strategy for the MAXIMUS Texas Project, which includes webinars, computer-based training and instructor-led workshops.

A Toastmaster for 25 years, Lark is a member of two clubs, including her home club in Pflugerville, Texas, the Arthur Storer club that was chartered in honour of her father-in-law after his death in 1997.

Lark has held a number of high-profile leadership positions within Toastmasters and has attained the Distinguished Toastmaster designation—the highest level of achievement in the organization.

"I have used my improved communication and leadership skills to found and lead a successful company. I now have the privilege to work for a company where I use my skills daily to teach others."

As an officer of the Toastmasters International Board of Directors, Lark is a "working ambassador" for the organization. She works with the Board to develop, support and modify the policies and procedures that guide Toastmasters International in fulfilling its mission.
