OUR STORY

HOW IT STARTED

Pacific Toastmasters chartered in 2005 and the occasion was showcased on Tagata Pasifika, a news and current affairs show that covers stories in New Zealand (NZ) and overseas. Basically, the show is a big deal, and we got to be on it.

AND IT'S NOT JUST PACIFIC MEDIA

NEWSHUB, RNZ, STUFF.CO.NZ

When Pacific alum Pstr. Joseph Fa'afiu won the New Zealand International Speech Contest and went on to represent our Club/District/Country at Canada, it was a VPPR's dream come true - FREE PUBLICITY!

New Zealand's best public speaker

31/05/2017

Joseph Fa'afiu has the gift of the gab.

The South Auckland pastor just won the New Zealand Toastmasters competition, the first competition he'd entered.

Now he's set his sights on global domination and he needs your help.

He wants to be the first Polynesian to win at the world champs in August.

SERVICE

SHINING THE LIGHT ON OTHER CAUSES

One of our Club values is 'service'. Being Pacific Toastmasters, service (tautua) goes beyond our Club and extends to our families and communities. This means sometimes we promote other causes that are meaningful to us, such as Breast Cancer Pink Ribbon Day...

FUN

PACIFIC TOASTMASTERS PIRFDAY P-PARTY

Another of our Club values is 'fun'. We recognise Toastmasters is an educational programme, but we also know it's important for Club retention that members have fun while learning.

We celebrated our 5th birthday with a dress-up party. Everyone joined in the fun and it garnered a lot of interest on our social media!
