

Taupo Conference Committee Report

Taupo conference was executed by an experienced team of Toastmasters who all synchronised roles to bring the event to a successful conclusion.

Thanks to attention and sound fiscal management supported by sponsorship at a variety of levels Conference concluded with a surplus of $244.11

In total there were 172 registrations broken down as follows:

Registration type	Total	Notes
Earlybird Gold	43	Includes 4 free registrations
Earlybird Silver	60
Silver Full	31	Includes 4 Sat+Sun registrations and 2 free registrations
Late	3
Dinner only	7
Fri only	1	Includes 1 free contest-only registration
Sat only	8	Includes 3 free contest-only registrations
Sun only	4	Includes 1 free contest-only registration
Total in person	157
Virtual full	12
Virtual Fri	1
Virtual Sat	0
Virtual Sun	2
Total virtual	15
Fri lunch	57
Sat lunch	85
Sat dinner	76

A report including recommendations and feedback from both committee members and registrants has been supplied to the 2025 Rotorua Conference Committee for consideration in their planning processes.

I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank the Conference committee for their commitment and dedication to this event. The versatility and adaptability shown by all when challenges arose was second to none and professionalism reigned at all times.

Committee members were Amy Overington, PDDG Murray Coutts, PDD Wendy Wickliffe, PDD Stephen Budai,

Kevin Prohl, Agnes Mazot, Dean Yee, PDD Toni Sharp and the District Trio, James Hippolite, Richard Perkins and Marlene Krone as ex-officio members.